

Dear Columbus House Family,

Winter isn't officially here, but the cold weather is! Right now, people living outside are receiving life-saving supplies, guests staying at our shelters are enjoying fresh meals (and had a delicious Thanksgiving dinner!), and those moving into their own apartments have the household basics needed for a new start—all thanks to you. You are busy collecting gifts for children in our family shelters, organizing drives for our Veterans, and so much more!

Through every season and holiday, you make sure your neighbors are cared for. Thank you for giving people experiencing homelessness a brighter outlook as we approach the new year.

Happy Holidays!

P.S. We are welcoming meal serving volunteers to our kitchen for the first time since the onset of the pandemic with new guidelines in place to keep you, our staff, and our guests safe. Please reach out to our Volunteer Coordinator, Sheree, if you would like to learn more and get involved!
