

Dear Volunteers,

This Halloween, we're reminded of the real magic you bring to Columbus House. Over the past four months, you've offered your time, talents, and resources—gifts that have brightened the lives of our neighbors facing homelessness. Whether preparing summer cookouts, collecting back-to-school supplies for families, or ensuring clients are ready to vote—your kindness keeps our work going strong.

As we step into the heart of fall, we're grateful for your ongoing support, which brings warmth and comfort to our neighbors facing homelessness. Thank you for making a great impact on our community—your generosity is an incredible treat.

Wishing you a safe and joyful Halloween!
