

Dear Volunteers,

Because of you, the holiday season at Columbus House was filled with warmth, generosity, and moments of joy for our clients. While this time of year can be especially challenging for our neighbors facing homelessness, your kindness brought comfort and a true sense of community.

From holiday meals to gift cards for Veterans, toys for children, musical performances, warm clothing drives, and essential supplies for families at our triage center, your support made a meaningful difference.

Thank you for standing with us—not just during the holidays, but all year long—as we work together to end homelessness.

Visit our Facebook and Instagram pages to find photos and videos of your holiday—and year-round—generosity in action!
